IN RE: Applicant: [Redacted]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

[Redacted]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Cindy N. Gomez for
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status (TPS) was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and the case is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The director's decision will be withdrawn and the appeal will be sustained.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who indicated on her application that she entered the United States without a lawful admission or parole in December 1995. The director approved the application for TPS on September 2, 1999. The director subsequently withdrew the applicant's TPS on January 3, 2003, when it was determined that the applicant had failed to submit her required annual re-registration in 2001.

Persons applying for TPS offered to Hondurans must demonstrate that they have continuously resided in the United States since December 30, 1998, and that they have been continuously physically present in the United States since January 5, 1999. On May 11, 2000, the Attorney General announced an extension of the TPS designation until July 5, 2001. Subsequent extensions of the TPS designation have been granted, with the latest extension valid until January 5, 2005, upon the applicant's re-registration during the requisite time period.

An alien who has been granted Temporary Protected Status must register annually with the district office or service center having jurisdiction over the alien's place of residence 8 C.F.R. § 244.17(a).

On November 5, 2002, the director notified the applicant that her Temporary Protected Status would be "withdrawn unless you can submit additional evidence to show that you had registered on time or that you had a good reason for not registering." The record does not contain a response from the applicant.

The director concluded that the applicant had failed to overcome the grounds stated in the Notice of Intent to Withdraw and withdrew the applicant's TPS on January 3, 2003. On appeal, the applicant explained that she had trusted a private service to file her re-registration and speculated that that company may have lost her paperwork.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under section 244 of the Act if the alien fails without good cause to register with the Attorney General annually within thirty (30) days before the end of each 12-month period after the granting of Temporary Protected Status. 8 C.F.R. § 244.17(c).

In this case, the applicant provided an explanation for her failure to re-register in 2001 and it does not appear that the applicant "willfully" failed to re-register. Therefore, the director's decision will be withdrawn and the appeal will be sustained.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has met this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is sustained.
