IN RE: Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. §1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to submit evidence to establish that she met the continuous physical presence and continuous residence requirements for TPS. The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant fails to address the grounds of denial or submit evidence that she has met the physical presence and continuous residence criteria. Counsel states the applicant will establish that she is statutorily eligible for TPS under the program for Hondurans. Counsel states the applicant would be submitting additional evidence within 30 days from April 17, 2003. To date, however, no additional evidence has been received. Therefore, the record will be considered complete.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Nor did the applicant address the issue of eligibility for temporary protected status. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
