DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to submit the court's final dispositions of all his arrests as had been requested. The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, counsel asserts that the only document given to the applicant by the court was from the Cohalan First District Court in Central Islip. Counsel requests an additional two weeks in order to seek additional information and to comply with the service requirement. To date, however, no additional statement or evidence has been provided. Therefore, the record shall be considered complete.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an alien who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for temporary protected status only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the Federal Register, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
 - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
 - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;
 - (iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or

- (iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

Pursuant to section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a), an alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status if the Attorney General [now the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security (the Secretary)] finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States.

8 C.F.R. § 244.1 defines "felony" and "misdemeanor:"

Felony means a crime committed in the United States punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except when the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor, and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either:

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or
- (2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a felony or misdemeanor.

Section 212(a)(2) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2), provides that aliens inadmissible and ineligible to receive visas and ineligible to be admitted to the United States include:

(A)(i) Any alien convicted of, or who admits having committed, or who admits committing acts which constitute the essential elements of --

(I) a crime involving moral turpitude (other than a purely political offense) or an attempt or conspiracy to commit such a crime, or

(II) a violation of (or a conspiracy or attempt to violate) any law or regulation of a State, the United States, or a foreign country relating to a controlled substance (as defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act, 21 U.S.C. § 802).

The record reflects the following:

1. The records of the First District Court, Central Islip, Suffolk County, New York, show that the applicant was arraigned for the offense of unlawful possession of marijuana. The court document shows the disposition of the case: "October 15, 2002 - ACOD 10/09/2003 Adjourned in Contemplation of Dismissal." No documentation was furnished to establish that the court, in fact, dismissed the case.

2. The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) report reflects that on May 19, 1994, in Yaphank, New York, the applicant, under the name of [REDACTED] was arrested and charged with sexual abuse 3rd degree. The court's final disposition of this arrest is not contained in the record of proceeding.

3. The FBI report reflects that on January 23, 2001, in Yaphank, New York, the applicant, under the name of Antonio Oliva, was arrested and charged with petit larceny. The court's final disposition of this arrest is not contained in the record of proceeding.

Sexual abuse and petit theft are crimes involving moral turpitude, and convictions of these crimes may render the applicant inadmissible to the United States pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Act. Additionally, a conviction of unlawful possession of marijuana may render the applicant inadmissible pursuant to section 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(II) of the Act.

The applicant, however, failed to submit the court's final dispositions of his arrests. The director's decision to deny the application will, therefore, be affirmed.

The burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
