DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application after determining that the applicant had failed to establish he was eligible for late registration, and because the applicant failed to establish continuous residence in the United States since December 30, 1998, and continuous physical presence in the United States since January 5, 1999. The director also noted that the applicant stated on his application that he did not enter the United States until February 25, 2000, after the initial registration period.

On appeal, the applicant did not provide any supporting documentary evidence or brief along with his submission. Further, he did not identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in this proceeding.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact by the director. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
