DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Nicaragua who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish that he was eligible for late registration.

An appeal that is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1).

Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director's decision of denial, dated September 25, 2003, clearly advised the applicant that any appeal must be properly filed within thirty days after service of the decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i). Coupled with three days for mailing, the appeal, in this case, should have been filed on or before October 28, 2003. The applicant's initial attempt to file the appeal was returned with his payment because the appeal notice had not been properly signed. The appeal was subsequently received at the Texas Service Center on November 5, 2003.

Had the appeal been timely filed, it is further noted that the applicant, on appeal, failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact in this proceeding. The Notice of Appeal, in full lists only the applicant's social security number and the money order number. The applicant does not provide any additional evidence in support of the appeal. The applicant also indicates that a brief and/or additional evidence would be submitted within 30 days of the date of the appeal. However, to date the record contains no additional evidence in support of the appeal.

Based upon the applicant's failure to file a timely appeal, the appeal will be rejected.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
