DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Denver, Colorado, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The district director determined that the applicant was ineligible for TPS because he had been convicted of a felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. The district director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant states only that he "need more time." He checked the block, "I need 30 days to submit a brief and/or evidence to the AAU." To date, however, no additional statement or evidence has been provided.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. Nor did he submit a brief and/or evidence within 30 days as stated. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
