DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish he qualified for late registration.

"Affected Party" means the person or entity with legal standing in a proceeding. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(iii)(B).

An appeal filed by a person or entity not entitled to file it must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee which has been accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v).

In this case, the appeal was filed by a representative of "[REDACTED]", Immigration Consultants. Immigration Consultants is not an accredited representative recognized by the Board of Immigration Appeals. Further, the U.S. Department of Justice, Executive Office for Immigration Review, Recognition and Accreditation Roster does not list either [REDACTED] or Immigration Consultants as recognized entities. Therefore, the appeal will be rejected.

It is noted that the record contains an Order of the Immigration Judge, dated October 1, 1997, in which the judge granted the applicant voluntary departure until November 3, 1997.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
