DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application after determining that the applicant had failed to establish that she was eligible for late registration.

On appeal, the applicant submitted a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal, which has been left blank in the section where the reason(s) for the appeal are to be briefly delineated. The applicant also did not indicate that a separate brief or evidence was being submitted with the appeal notice, or would be submitted within 30 days. The applicant, furthermore, has not submitted a statement or any additional evidence in support of the appeal.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

It is noted that the pay stubs and Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Forms W-2, Wage and Tax Statements for 2000 and 2002, appear to have been altered. The documents also bear different social security numbers. The applicant has failed to submit any objective evidence to explain or justify the apparent alteration of the documents. Doubt cast on any aspect of the applicant's proof may lead to a reevaluation of the reliability and sufficiency of the remaining evidence offered in support of the application. It is incumbent upon the applicant to resolve any inconsistencies in the record by independent objective evidence, and attempts to explain or reconcile such inconsistencies, absent competent objective evidence pointing to where the truth lies, will not suffice. Matter of Ho, 19 I&N Dec. 582 (BIA 1988).

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
