ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The director's decision will be withdrawn and the matter will be remanded for further action.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the current application, filed on June 21, 2002, after determining that the applicant had failed to establish that he was eligible for filing after the initial registration period from January 5, 1999, to August 20, 1999. The applicant, however, did not indicate that this was his initial Application for Temporary Protected Status. Rather, he indicated that he was applying for annual re-registration and provided a copy of his Employment Authorization Card that was issued in 1999. The record does not reflect the director's acknowledgement or review of the applicant's prior application before a decision was rendered on the current application.

The evidence contained in this file is not sufficient to support the director's decision of denial. Therefore, the case will be remanded. The director shall review all CIS records pertaining to this applicant and all files relating to this individual's TPS application history shall be consolidated into the applicant's permanent record. The director shall issue a new decision that, if adverse to the applicant, shall be certified to the AAO for review. The director may request any evidence deemed necessary to assist with the determination of the applicant's eligibility for TPS. As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The director's decision is withdrawn. The matter is remanded for further action.
