IN RE: Applicant:

PETITION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's temporary protected status was withdrawn by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to submit evidence to establish that she had successfully re-registered for temporary protected status during the period of 2002 to 2003. The director, therefore, withdrew the applicant's temporary protected status.

On appeal, the applicant fails to make a claim or provide any additional evidence. The applicant indicates that she is not submitting a separate brief or evidence. The applicant provides only the first page of an undated Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted temporary protected status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that the alien failed without good cause to register with the Attorney General annually within thirty (30) days before the end of each 12-month period after the granting of TPS. 8 C.F.R. § 244.14.

The initial application was filed on January 28, 1999, and approved on January 10, 2000. On July 7, 2003, the director notified the applicant of the intent to withdraw her temporary protected status because the record reflected that she had failed to re-register for TPS during the re-registration period between July 6, 2002 to July 5, 2003. The applicant was granted 30 days to submit evidence to show that she had re-registered for TPS. The applicant failed to respond. The director determined the applicant had failed to submit evidence to establish that she had filed for re-registration during the required period and, therefore, withdrew the applicant's temporary protected status.

The applicant, on appeal, fails to make any statement. The applicant has not submitted any evidence to establish that she re-registered for temporary protected status during the period July 6, 2002 to July 5, 2003, or to provide a reason as to why she did not register. Therefore, she has not overcome the findings of the director pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 244.14.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
