IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Cindy M. Gomez
Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The director's decision will be withdrawn and the case will be remanded for further action.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the current application, filed on September 10, 2002, after determining that the applicant failed to establish she: 1) had continuously resided in the United States since February 13, 2001; 2) had been continuously physically present in the United States since March 9, 2001; and 3) was eligible for late registration. However, CIS records indicate that the current application is not the initial Application for Temporary Protected Status. Rather, CIS records show that a previous TPS application was received by CIS on July 10, 2001. The record does not reflect the director's acknowledgement or review of the applicant's prior application before a decision was rendered on the current application.

The evidence contained in this file is not sufficient to support the director's decision of denial. Therefore, the case will be remanded. The director shall review all CIS records pertaining to this applicant and all files relating to this individual's TPS application history shall be consolidated into the record of proceedings. The director shall issue a new decision that, if adverse to the applicant, shall be certified to the AAO for review. The director may request any evidence deemed necessary to assist with the determination of the applicant's eligibility for TPS. As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The director's decision is withdrawn. The case is remanded for further action.
