Date: MAY 05 2005

IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to respond to his notice of intent to deny dated October 22, 2003, requesting to submit: (1) evidence to establish that he qualifies for late initial registration; (2) evidence to show date of entry and continuous residence in the United States since February 13, 2001; (3) evidence to show that he had been continuously physically present in the United States since March 9, 2001; and (4) a photo identity document. The director, therefore, denied the application.

On appeal, the applicant states, "I want an opportunity to be legal in the USA. I think everyone deserves a chance. I am honest person that has never been in trouble with the police. Give me this opportunity please. Thank you." While the applicant indicates that a brief and/or evidence will be furnished within 30 days, to date, no additional statement or evidence has been provided.

8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

Summary dismissal. An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The applicant has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. The applicant, on appeal, neither addressed nor submitted any of the evidence requested by the director. Further, while the applicant states that additional evidence will be provided, the file contains no further response from the applicant. Accordingly, the appeal will be summarily dismissed.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
