IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied, reopened, and denied again by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application on July 14, 2003, after determining that the applicant had failed to establish that she was eligible for late registration.

On August 22, 2003, the applicant filed an appeal from the director's decision. On appeal, the applicant stated that she had apparently not submitted enough evidence.

On June 21, 2004, the director rejected the appeal because it was filed more than 33 days after the date of issuance of the Notice of Decision, but accepted the appeal as a motion to reopen. The director denied the application because the applicant had not established her eligibility for late registration, her continuous residence in the United States since February 13, 2001, and her continuous physical presence in the United States since March 9, 2001.

On appeal, the applicant does not make a statement or submit any evidence to overcome the grounds for denial of the application.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
