IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-Represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Temporary Protected Status (TPS) application was denied by the Director, St. Paul, Minnesota, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed as moot, because the designated period of TPS for Liberia terminated on August 25, 2004.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Liberia who is seeking TPS under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application on May 13, 2004, after determining that the applicant was inadmissible under the provisions of Section 212(a)(6)(C) of the Act for providing false statements during his interview, and because the applicant failed to establish that he had not been convicted of a felony or two or more misdemeanors. The record reflects charges against the applicant as follows: April 13, 2001 - "RESTRICTED INST;" July 19, 2001 - Felony Fleeing a Police Officer; October 9, 2001- Fleeing Peace Officer in Motor Vehicle; October 31, 2002 - "DRIVE AFTER REV;" February 1, 2002 - Credit Card Transaction Fraud; February 4, 2003 - "DRV AFTER SUSPE."

On August 25, 2004, the Department of Homeland Security announced the termination of prior designations and the re-designation of TPS for nationals of Liberia (or aliens having no nationality who last habitually resided in Liberia). As the designation period for which the applicant requests TPS has passed, approval of the application at this time would serve no practical effect since any decision rendered by the AAO would be subsequent to the date of the termination date of the authorized period.

ORDER: The application is summarily dismissed.
