Robert P. Wiemann, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Vermont Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The case will be remanded.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed his application on April 24, 2001. On July 29, 2003, the applicant was requested to submit evidence establishing his qualifying continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States. The record does not contain a response from the applicant; therefore, the director denied the application on October 7, 2003.

Under 8 C.F.R. § 103.3, "the officer shall explain in writing the specific reasons for denial." The director stated that the applicant had failed to respond to a request for evidence, and that the grounds for denial had not been overcome. However, while the director's decision states: "your application is denied", the specific reason for the denial is not indicated.

Therefore, the case is remanded for the issuance of a new decision that sets forth the specific reasons for the denial.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The case is remanded to the director for entry of a new decision.
