Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. A motion to reopen, filed by the applicant, was granted by the director. The case will be remanded for further consideration and action.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director determined that the applicant failed to establish that he was eligible for filing his TPS application after the initial registration period from January 5, 1999 to August 20, 1999. The director, therefore, denied the application.

The Director, Texas Service Center, subsequently reopened the decision on February 24, 2004 and provided 30 days to submit evidence establishing his eligibility for late registration as set forth in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2). There is nothing in the record to indicate the applicant responded to the motion.

The record does not contain a decision subsequent to the reopening of the case on February 24, 2004. According to 8 C.F.R. 103.3(a)(3), whenever an application filed under § 103.2 of this part, the officer shall explain in writing the specific reasons for denial.

The case is remanded for the purpose of a written decision which fully addresses the evidence. Should the decision be adverse, the applicant shall be permitted to file an appeal, without fee.

ORDER: The case is remanded to the director for further action consistent with the above and entry of a decision.
