Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is stated to be a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed an initial application for TPS after the initial period under receipt number SRC 04 103 53922. The director denied that application on May 11, 2004, after determining that the applicant had failed to establish he was eligible for late initial registration. The director also found that the applicant had not established that he had been continuously physically present in the United States since January 5, 1999 and that he had continuously resided in this country since December 30, 1998. The director also found that the applicant had failed to submit a photocopy of his driver's license and his original birth certificate with English translation as requested.

A subsequent appeal and motion to reopen were dismissed by the Director, AAO.

The applicant filed the current Form I-821, on December 29, 2004, and indicated that he was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application because the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible to apply for re-registration for TPS.

If an alien is filing a re-registration application, a previous grant of TPS must have been afforded the applicant, as only those individuals who are granted TPS must register annually. In addition, the applicant must continue to maintain the conditions of eligibility. 8 C.F.R. § 244.17.

The applicant has not previously been granted TPS. Therefore, he is not eligible to re-register for TPS. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
