ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed a late initial TPS application on May 11, 2005, under CIS receipt number WAC 05 223 81544. The director denied the application on April 25, 2006, because the applicant failed to establish that he was eligible for late initial registration. In the Notice of Intent to Deny, dated March 1, 2006, the director specifically requested that the applicant provide evidence that the applicant met the requirements for late initial registration.

On appeal, the applicant's attorney states only that TPS was denied on April 25, 2006. Counsel does not submit any brief and/or evidence with appeal. Although with the appeal, the applicant's attorney states that he is submitting a separate brief/or evidence within 30 days, the record does not reflect any submissions whatsoever from his attorney or from the applicant. Also, the record does not reflect that the applicant, or his attorney, requested an extension of time to submit evidence in support of the appeal.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. §103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
