IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the California Service Center. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The initial application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center (TSC). A subsequent application for re-registration was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is currently before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The initial application will be reopened, sua sponte, by the Chief, AAO, and the case will be remanded for further consideration and action.

The applicant is stated to be a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed an initial application for TPS under CIS receipt number SRC 02 149 54468 which was denied by the Director, TSC, after determining that the applicant had abandoned his application by failing to respond to a Notice of Intent to Deny, (NOID).

The applicant filed the current application on May 12, 2005, and indicated that he was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application because the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible to apply for re-registration for TPS.

Prior to the denial of her initial TPS application by the Director, TSC, the applicant filed a subsequent Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, and a subsequent Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization, providing updated address information. However, the TSC director sent the applicant a denial notice dated May 6, 2003, concerning his initial Form I-821 to the address that he listed on his initial application and not to the latest address that he had provided for the record. Additionally, the applicant's address is not listed on the NOID the TSC director sent on January 15, 2003.

Although not addressed by the director, the applicant has provided insufficient evidence to establish that he is a national or citizen of El Salvador. The record does not contain any photo identification such as a passport or national identity document to establish his nationality. 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(a) and § 244.9(a)(1).

The director's denial of the initial application will be withdrawn and the application will be remanded for a new decision. The director's denial of the application for re-registration is also withdrawn as it is dependent upon the adjudication of the initial application. The director may request any evidence deemed necessary to assist with the determination of the applicant's eligibility for TPS.

As always in these proceedings the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The initial application is reopened, the director's decision is withdrawn and the application is remanded. The re-registration application is remanded for further action consistent with the director's new decision on the initial application.
