Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed an initial Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, after the initial registration period had closed. The director denied that application on July 7, 2004, because the applicant had not met the continuous residence and continuous physical presence requirements for TPS.

The applicant did not appeal the director's decision. After review of the record, AAO affirms the director's denial.

The applicant filed the current Form I-821, on April 25, 2005, and indicated that he was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application because the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible to apply for re-registration for TPS.

If an alien is filing a re-registration application, a previous grant of TPS must have been afforded the applicant, as only those individuals who are granted TPS must register annually. In addition, the applicant must continue to maintain the conditions of eligibility. 8 C.F.R. § 244.17.

The applicant has not previously been granted TPS. Therefore, he is not eligible to re-register for TPS. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application will be affirmed.

It is noted that on August 23, 2001, the applicant was convicted in the General Court of Justice of the State of North Carolina for driving while intoxicated, a misdemeanor. The applicant was also arrested on February 8, 2005 and charged with driving while his license was revoked and failure to notify the Department of Motor Vehicles of his address change. The applicant has not submitted the final court disposition(s) for these two charges.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements cited above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
