IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, California Service Center. The application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. §1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed a TPS application during the initial registration period on February 2, 1999, under Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS) receipt number SRC 99 118 52353. The Director, Texas Service Center, approved that application on April 1, 2000.

The applicant filed the current Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on January 11, 2005, and indicated that he was re-registering for TPS.

The record reveals the following offenses:

On January 7, 2000, the applicant was convicted of "Burglary of an Unoccupied – Felony, 3rd Degree", and "Petit Theft – Misdemeanor, 2nd Degree."

The director withdrew temporary protected status because the applicant had had been convicted of a felony or two or more misdemeanors in the United States. The applicant is ineligible for temporary protected status because of his two convictions. 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Therefore, the director's decision is affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
