Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The initial application was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The initial application will be reopened, sua sponte, by the Chief, Administrative Appeals Office (AAO), and the application will be approved. A subsequent application for re-registration was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is currently before the AAO on appeal. The appeal will be sustained and the application will be approved.

The applicant is a citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed her initial application for TPS under receipt number SRC 01 154 62608. The Director, Texas Service Center (TSC) denied the initial application on August 16, 2003, after determining that the applicant had failed to appear for her required fingerprint appointment.

The record reveals that the applicant subsequently was fingerprinted and the FBI criminal history response dated April 8, 2006, does not reflect a criminal record that would bar the applicant from receiving TPS. Additionally, the record of proceedings contains sufficient evidence to establish the applicant's eligibility for TPS and does not reflect any grounds that would bar the applicant from receiving TPS. Therefore, the director's decision will be withdrawn and the initial application will be approved.

The director's denial of the application for re-registration or renewal is dependent upon the adjudication of the initial application. Since the initial application is being approved, the appeal from the denial of the re-registration will be sustained and that application will also be approved. The applicant is eligible for employment authorization under 8 C.F.R. § 274a.12(a)(12).

ORDER: The application is reopened and the director's denial of the initial application is withdrawn. The initial application and the re-registration application are both approved. The appeal is sustained.
