Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied and the TPS status of the applicant was withdrawn by the Director, California Service Center. The application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed his initial TPS application on April 1, 2002. The Director, Texas Service Center, approved that application on January 16, 2003.

The applicant filed the instant Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on May 13, 2005, and indicated that he was re-registering for TPS. On June 1, 2006, the director sent a notice of intent to withdraw the approval of the applicant's TPS and requested the applicant to submit the final court dispositions of his past arrests.

The director denied the re-registration application and withdrew the applicant's TPS status on August 11, 2006, because the applicant did not respond the director's request.

An appeal that is not filed within the time allowed must be rejected as improperly filed. In such a case, any filing fee accepted will not be refunded. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(1).

Whenever a person has the right or is required to do some act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him or her and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. Service by mail is complete upon mailing. 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b).

The director's decision of withdrawal and denial of the re-registration application, dated August 11, 2006, clearly advised the applicant that any appeal must be properly filed within thirty days after service of the decision. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i). Coupled with three days for mailing, the appeal, in this case, should have been filed on or before September 13, 2006. The appeal was received at the California Service Center on September 22, 2006.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

Based upon the applicant's failure to file a timely appeal, the appeal will be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
