

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services

PUBLIC COPY

identifying data deleted to prevent clearly unwarranted
invasion of personal privacy

M

FILE: [REDACTED] OFFICE: CALIFORNIA SERVICE CENTER DATE: MAY 22 2001
[WAC 05 225 89068]

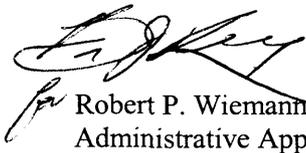

IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant claims to be a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed an initial TPS application on September 10, 2002, under receipt number WAC 03 073 53231. The director denied that application on June 15, 2004, because the applicant had "failed to register in a timely manner." On July 19, 2004, the applicant filed an appeal from the denial decision. That appeal will be addressed in a separate decision.

The applicant filed the current Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on May 13, 2005, and indicated that she was re-registering for TPS.

The director denied the re-registration application on August 16, 2005, because the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible to apply for re-registration for TPS.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that she opposes the director's decision denying her case since she has timely and properly filed her TPS application. She requests reconsideration of her case because she is an El Salvadoran who has been in this country since April 2000, and that she is responsible for the support of her family.

The applicant is filing the current TPS application as a re-registration; therefore, a previous grant of TPS must have been afforded the applicant, as only those individuals who are granted TPS must register annually. In addition, the applicant must continue to maintain the conditions of eligibility. 8 C.F.R. § 244.17.

In this case, the applicant has not previously been granted TPS. Therefore, she is not eligible to re-register for TPS. Consequently, the director's decision to deny the application will be affirmed.

It is noted that although the record of proceeding contains an El Salvadoran birth certificate and English translation, the certificate was not accompanied by photo identification to establish the applicant's nationality and identity as required by 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a)(1).

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.