IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION:

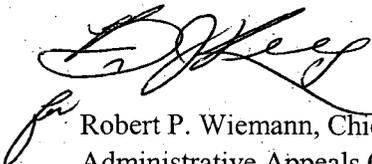

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the California Service Center. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status (TPS) was withdrawn by the Director, California Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reveals that the applicant filed an initial TPS application on February 11, 1999, under CIS receipt number WAC 99 108 52250. The Director, California Service Center, approved that application on April 13, 2000.

The director, however, withdrew the applicant's TPS on February 22, 2006, as the record of proceedings established that the applicant had been convicted of at least two misdemeanors.

The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted temporary protected status under section 244 of the Act at any time if it is determined that "the alien was not in fact eligible for such status" or if "the alien fails, without good cause, to re-register ... in a form and manner specified by" the Secretary. The regulations under 8 C.F.R. § 244.14(a)(1) and (3) further state that the director may withdraw the status of an alien granted TPS if, "the alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status," or if, "the alien fails without good cause to re-register".

On appeal, the applicant states that although he has one conviction, the court disposition shows two convictions. The applicant does not submit any additional evidence on appeal.

The court disposition records, however, clearly show that the applicant has two misdemeanor convictions. Specifically, the record reveals that on May 26, 2004, the Superior Court of California, County of Los Angeles, California, convicted the applicant, on a nolo contendere plea, of a violation of Section 23152 (B) VC, a misdemeanor. The applicant was sentenced to 36 months probation, 13 days jail, plus fines, and costs; and, convicted the applicant, on a nolo contendere plea, of a violation of Section 273A (B) PC, a misdemeanor. The applicant was sentenced to 48 months probation, 15 days jail plus fines, and costs.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for temporary protected status only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national, as defined in section 101(a)(21) of the Act, of a foreign state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;

- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for TPS during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the Federal Register, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation, if at the time of the initial registration period:
 - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
 - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;
 - (iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or
 - (iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

Section 244(c) ALIENS ELIGIBLE FOR TEMPORARY PROTECTED STATUS.-

(2) ELIGIBILITY STANDARDS.-

(B) ALIENS INELIGIBLE. - An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Attorney General finds that-

- (i) the alien has been convicted of any felony or 2 misdemeanors committed in the United States,....

8 C.F.R. § 244.1 defines "felony" and "misdemeanor:"

Felony means a crime committed in the United States, punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except: When the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or
- (2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor.

The record reveals two misdemeanor convictions for the applicant. Therefore, the applicant is ineligible for TPS due to his record of two misdemeanors, detailed above. Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.F.R. § 244.4(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
