IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT: SELF-REPRESENTED

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Vermont Service Center (VSC), denied the application and the application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a citizen of El Salvador who seeks Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish he was eligible for late registration. The director also found that the applicant had failed to establish his qualifying continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant asserts that he did not initially apply for TPS because he was out of status and was afraid that, if he did apply, he would be deported.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state designated by the Attorney General is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;
- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 C.F.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for Temporary Protected Status during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
 - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
 - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;
 - (iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or
 - (iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

- (g) Has filed an application for late registration with the appropriate Service director within a 60-day period immediately following the expiration or termination of conditions described in paragraph (f)(2) of this section.

The phrase continuously physically present, as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, means actual physical presence in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous physical presence in the United States by virtue of brief, casual, and innocent absences as defined within this section.

The phrase continuously resided, as defined in 8 C.F.R. § 244.1, means residing in the United States for the entire period specified in the regulations. An alien shall not be considered to have failed to maintain continuous residence in the United States by reason of a brief, casual and innocent absence as defined within this section or due merely to a brief temporary trip abroad required by emergency or extenuating circumstances outside the control of the alien.

Persons applying for TPS offered to Salvadorans must demonstrate continuous residence in the United States since February 13, 2001, and continuous physical presence since March 9, 2001.

The initial registration period for Salvadorans was from March 9, 2001, through September 9, 2002. Subsequent extensions of the TPS designation have been granted, with the latest extension valid until March 9, 2009, upon the applicant's re-registration during the requisite time period.

To qualify for late registration, the applicant must provide evidence that during the initial registration period he fell within at least one of the four provisions described in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2) above.

The burden of proof is on the applicant to establish that he or she meets the above requirements. Applicants shall submit all documentation as required in the instructions or requested by Citizenship and Immigration Services (CIS). 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). The sufficiency of all evidence will be judged according to its relevancy, consistency, credibility, and probative value. To meet his or her burden of proof, the applicant must provide supporting documentary evidence of eligibility apart from his or her own statements. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(b).

The record reflects that the applicant filed his initial TPS application on September 25, 2006-four years after the close of the initial registration period for Salvadorans. On February 27, 2007, the director requested that the applicant submit evidence establishing his eligibility for late registration as set forth in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2). The director also requested that the applicant submit evidence establishing his qualifying continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States. Finally, the director requested that the applicant submit a photo identity document. In response, the applicant submitted the following:

1. a receipt from the Gigante Express remittance service, dated August 9, 2002;
2. an unnotarized letter from [REDACTED], a United States citizen who knows the applicant because they worked together;
3. an unnotarized letter from [REDACTED], General Superintendent of Congressional Holiness Church, Inc.;
4. an unnotarized letter from [REDACTED], a United States citizen who knows the applicant;

5. an unnotarized letter from [REDACTED], a United States citizen who knows the applicant;
6. a copy of the applicant's passport; and,
7. the applicant's 2001-2006 Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Form 1040, U.S. Individual Income Tax Returns.

On April 6, 2007, the director denied the application, finding that the applicant had failed to establish he was eligible for late registration and had failed to establish his qualifying continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States. On appeal, the applicant states that he needs to legalize his status in order to support his family and submits no new documentation.

The applicant has submitted evidence in an attempt to establish his qualifying residence and physical presence in the United States. The documents submitted by the applicant do not overcome the applicant's failure to file his TPS application within the initial registration period. The applicant has not submitted any evidence to establish that he has met any of the criteria for late registration described in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(f)(2). Consequently, the director's conclusion that the applicant had failed to establish his eligibility for late registration will be affirmed.

Furthermore, the documentation submitted fails to establish the applicant's qualifying residence and continuous physical presence. The receipt from Gigante Express only shows physical presence in 2002. The letter from [REDACTED] can be given little evidentiary weight and has little probative value as it does not provide basic information that is expressly required by 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a)(2)(v). Specifically, the pastor does not explain the origin of the information to which he attests, nor does he provide the address where the applicant resided during the period of his involvement with the church. It is further noted that the pastor did not indicate the location of his church. The three other letters are not sworn to, do not provide the affiants' addresses, dates and places of birth, relationships to the applicant, or full information and/or complete details relating to the applicant's continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States as required by 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a)(2)(vi). The tax returns submitted by the applicant can be given little weight as they are not accompanied by IRS Form W-2, Wage & Tax Statements or certification of filing with the Federal, state or local government, as required by 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a)(2)(i).

The applicant has not submitted sufficient credible evidence to establish his qualifying continuous residence and continuous physical presence in the United States. He has, therefore, failed to establish that he has met the criteria described in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2(b) and (c). The director's decision to deny the application for TPS on these grounds will also be affirmed.

The application will be denied for the above stated reasons, with each considered as an independent and alternative basis for denial. An alien applying for TPS has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
