IN RE: Applicant: [REDACTED]

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Robert P. Wiemann".

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Temporary Protected Status (TPS) application was denied by the District Director, Denver, Colorado, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed as moot, because the applicant is currently residing in the United States as a Lawful Permanent Resident.

The applicant claims to be native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking TPS under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254 for the registration period ending September 9, 2002.

As the applicant has subsequently applied for and received approval of a change of status to legal permanent resident. Approval of the application at this time would serve no practical effect.

ORDER: The application is summarily dismissed. The dismissal of this application has no bearing or legal effect on the applicant's Lawful Permanent Resident status.
