IN RE: Applicant: [Redacted]

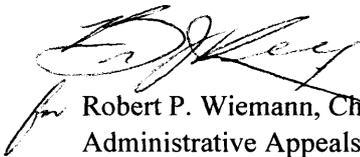

APPLICATION: Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the California Service Center. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The initial application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center. The initial application will be reopened, sua sponte, by the Chief, Administrative Appeals Office, and the application will be approved. A subsequent application for re-registration was denied by the Director, California Service Center, and is currently before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be sustained and the application will be approved.

The applicant is a citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed an initial application for TPS under receipt number LIN 01 146 50596. The director denied the initial application as abandoned on September 8, 2001, after determining that the applicant had failed to appear for fingerprinting. However, the record of proceedings reveals that the applicant appeared and was fingerprinted on September 13, 2001.

The record of proceedings contains sufficient evidence to establish the applicant's eligibility for TPS and does not reflect any grounds that would bar the applicant from receiving TPS. Therefore, the director's decision will be withdrawn and the initial application will be approved.

The director's denial of the application for re-registration or renewal is dependent upon the adjudication of the initial application. Since the initial application is being approved, the appeal from the denial of the re-registration will be sustained and that application will also be approved. The applicant is eligible for employment authorization under 8 C.F.R. § 274a.12(a)(12).

ORDER: The application is reopened and the director's denial of the initial application is withdrawn. The initial application and the re-registration application are both approved.
