APPLICATION:

Application for Temporary Protected Status under Section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1254

ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

Self-represented

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The re-registration application was denied by the Director, California Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The record reflects that the applicant filed an initial TPS application on June 20, 2003, under CIS receipt number EAC 03 207 53528. The director denied the application after determining that the applicant had failed to establish her eligibility for late registration under the provisions of 8 C.F.R §244.2(f)(2). The director also found that the applicant had not submitted sufficient evidence to establish her continuous residence and continuous physical presence during the requisite periods. The appeal from the director's decision was dismissed on June 8, 2005, after the Director of the AAO also concluded that the applicant has failed to establish her eligibility for TPS. The record does not reflect that the applicant filed a motion.

The applicant filed the current Form 1-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, on January 28, 2005, under CIS receipt number WAC 05 140 76498, and indicated that she was re-registering for TPS. The director denied the re-registration application because the applicant's initial TPS application had been denied and the applicant was not eligible for re-registration for TPS.

On appeal of the denial of the re-registration application, the applicant failed to provide any statement or additional evidence in support of the appeal.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

As always in these proceedings, the burden of proof rests solely with the applicant. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
