for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The applicant's Temporary Protected Status was withdrawn by the Director, Vermont Service Center. The application is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Honduras who was granted Temporary Protected Status (TPS) on April 8, 2000, under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.c. § 1254.

The director withdrew the applicant's TPS application on September 20, 2007 because the applicant failed to submit the requested final court disposition for criminal offenses committed in the United States.

On appeal, the applicant did not make any statements regarding his appeal; however, he submitted additional evidence.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 244.14 states:

- (a) Authority of the director. The director may withdraw the status of an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under section 244 of the Act at any time upon the occurrence of any of the following:
 - (1) The alien was not in fact eligible at the time such status was granted, or at any time thereafter becomes ineligible for such status;
 - (2) The alien has not remained continuously physically present in the United States from the date the alien was first granted Temporary Protected Status under this part. For the purpose of this provision, an alien granted Temporary Protected Status under this part shall be deemed not to have failed to maintain continuous physical presence in the United States if the alien departs the United States after first obtaining permission from the district director to travel pursuant to § 244.15;
 - (3) The alien fails without good cause to register with the Attorney General annually within thirty (30) days before the end of each 12-month period after the granting of Temporary Protected Status.

Section 244(c) of the Act, and the related regulations in 8 C.F.R. § 244.2, provide that an applicant who is a national of a foreign state is eligible for TPS only if such alien establishes that he or she:

- (a) Is a national of a state designated under section 244(b) of the Act;
- (b) Has been continuously physically present in the United States since the effective date of the most recent designation of that foreign state;

- (c) Has continuously resided in the United States since such date as the Attorney General may designate;
- (d) Is admissible as an immigrant except as provided under section 244.3;
- (e) Is not ineligible under 8 c.P.R. § 244.4; and
- (f)
 - (1) Registers for Temporary Protected Status during the initial registration period announced by public notice in the FEDERAL REGISTER, or
 - (2) During any subsequent extension of such designation if at the time of the initial registration period:
 - (i) The applicant is a nonimmigrant or has been granted voluntary departure status or any relief from removal;
 - (ii) The applicant has an application for change of status, adjustment of status, asylum, voluntary departure, or any relief from removal which is pending or subject to further review or appeal;
 - (iii) The applicant is a parolee or has a pending request for reparole; or
 - (iv) The applicant is a spouse or child of an alien currently eligible to be a TPS registrant.

An alien shall not be eligible for temporary protected status under this section if the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security finds that the alien has been convicted of any felony or two or more misdemeanors committed in the United States. See Section 244(c)(2)(B)(i) of the Act and 8 C.P.R. § 244.4(a).

8 C.P.R. § 244.1 defines "felony" and "misdemeanor:"

Felony means a crime committed in the United States, punishable by imprisonment for a term of more than one year, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, except: When the offense is defined by the State as a misdemeanor and the sentence actually imposed is one year or less regardless of the term such alien actually served. Under this exception for purposes of section 244 of the Act, the crime shall be treated as a misdemeanor.

Misdemeanor means a crime committed in the United States, either

- (1) Punishable by imprisonment for a term of one year or less, regardless of the term such alien actually served, if any, or

(2) A crime treated as a misdemeanor under the term "felony" of this section.

For purposes of this definition, any crime punishable by imprisonment for a maximum term of five days or less shall not be considered a misdemeanor.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation Fingerprint Result Report, contained in the record of proceeding, reflects that on January 8, 2006, the applicant was arrested by the Sheriff's Office Gretna, Agency Case No. _____ and charged with (1) Operating a Vehicle While Intoxicated; (2) Possession of Alcoholic Beverage in Motor Vehicle; and (3) Careless Operation. In addition, on August 10, 1996, the applicant was arrested in Garvin County and charged with DUI - Liquor or Drugs!APCV; and on March 8, 1995, by the Texas Department of Public Safety and charged with Operate with Child in Open Bed and No Liability Insurance. The applicant was requested on June 27, 2007, to submit the final dispositions of these arrests from the court where the hearings took place. He was accorded 30 days in which to submit additional evidence.

On appeal, the applicant submits copies of Award Certificates from Esperanza, Inc.; a copy of ASC Appointment Notice dated September 11, 2007; and copies of (1) Hispanic Substance Abuse Counseling/Therapy, indicating that on September 22, 2007, the applicant successfully completed his Substance Abuse program; (2) Hispanic Driver Improvement Substance Abuse DWI Education Program, stating that on June 14, 2007, the applicant successfully completed the nine hours Substance Abuse & Driver Improvement DWI Education Program.

However, the applicant has failed to provide any evidence revealing the final court disposition for all of his arrests detailed above. The applicant is ineligible for Temporary Protected Status because of his failure to provide information necessary for the adjudication of his application. 8 C.F.R. § 244.9(a). Consequently, the director's decision to withdraw TPS application will be affirmed.

An alien applying for temporary protected status has the burden of proving that he or she meets the requirements enumerated above and is otherwise eligible under the provisions of section 244 of the Act. The applicant has failed to meet this burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
