ON BEHALF OF APPLICANT:

[REDACTED]

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the Vermont Service Center. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

for Robert P. Wiemann, Chief Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center (NSC), and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of El Salvador who is seeking Temporary Protected Status (TPS) under section 244 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1254.

The applicant filed an initial Form I-821, Application for Temporary Protected Status, under receipt number LIN 02 239 50489 during the initial registration period. The NSC Director denied that application on February 3, 2003, after determining that the applicant had abandoned her application by failing to respond to a request for evidence. A subsequent motion to reopen was denied by the NSC Director on April 10, 2003. The applicant filed this Form I-821 on September 3, 2003 under receipt number LIN 03 263 50036 after the initial registration period. The NSC Director denied the application because the applicant failed to establish she was eligible for late initial registration. The director also found the applicant failed to establish she had continuously resided in the United States since February 13, 2001 and had been continuously physically present in the United States since March 9, 2001.

On appeal, the applicant makes no statement nor submits additional documentation for consideration. Therefore, the record shall be considered complete.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

Inasmuch as the applicant has failed to identify specifically an erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding, the appeal shall be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
