IN RE:

Applicant:

APPLICATION: Application for Permanent Residence Pursuant to Section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act of November 2, 1966 (P.L. 89-732)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Baltimore, Maryland, who certified his decision to the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) for review. The District Director's decision will be affirmed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of Cuba who filed who filed an Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) to that of a lawful permanent resident under section 1 of the Cuban Adjustment Act (CAA) of November 2, 1966. The CAA provides, in part:

[T]he status of any alien who is a native or citizen of Cuba and who has been inspected and admitted or paroled into the United States subsequent to January 1, 1959 and has been physically present in the United States for at least one year, may be adjusted by the Attorney General, (now the Secretary of Homeland Security, (Secretary)), in his discretion and under such regulations as he may prescribe, to that of an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence if the alien makes an application for such adjustment, and the alien is eligible to receive an immigrant visa and is admissible to the United States for permanent residence.

The District Director found the applicant inadmissible to the United States because he falls within the purview of sections 212(a)(2)(A)(i)(I) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1182(a)(2)(A)(i)(I), for having been convicted of crimes involving moral turpitude, and 212(a)(2)(B) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. §1182(a)(2)(B) for having been convicted of two or more offenses for which the aggregate sentences to confinement were 5 years or more. The District Director, therefore, concluded that the applicant was ineligible for adjustment of status and denied the application accordingly. See District Director's Decision dated June 30, 2006.

The AAO notes that a previously submitted Form I-485 was denied by the District Director on January 7, 1988, and his decision was affirmed by the AAO on November 15, 1990.

The record reflects that the applicant has numerous criminal records in the United States and in Cuba. The record further reflects that on May 12, 2006, the District Director issued a Notice of Intent to Deny the Form I-485. The District Director requested that the applicant submit certified court dispositions of his arrests and evidence that he is eligible for a waiver of inadmissibility. The applicant was given 30 days to respond.

The applicant did not submit the required documentation within the required time frame, and the application for adjustment of status was denied.

On notice of certification, the applicant was offered an opportunity to submit evidence in opposition to the District Director's findings. No additional evidence has been entered into the record.

Pursuant to section 291 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that he is eligible for adjustment of status. He has failed to meet that burden. The decision of the District Director to deny the application will be affirmed.

ORDER: The District Director's decision is affirmed.
