Robert P. Wiemann, Chief
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the Field Office Director, Washington, D.C. and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant is a native and citizen of India who is seeking to adjust her status to that of lawful permanent resident under section 13 of the Act of 1957 ("Section 13"), Pub. L. No. 85-316, 71 Stat. 642, as modified, 95 Stat. 1611, 8 U.S.C. § 1255b, as an alien admitted under section 101(a)(15)(A)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(A)(i), and the immediate family member of a principal alien admitted under section 101(a)(15)(A)(i) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1101(a)(15)(A)(i), who performed diplomatic or semi-diplomatic duties.

The field office director denied the Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status (Form I-485) of the applicant's father after determining that he had failed to demonstrate that he performed diplomatic or semi-diplomatic duties, that compelling reasons prevent his and his family's return to India, or that adjustment is in the national interest. Decision of Field Office Director, dated March 14, 2008. The field office director denied the applicant's adjustment application on the basis of her father's ineligibility for benefits under Section 13. Counsel has appealed both decisions.

In a separate decision, the AAO has dismissed the appeal of the applicant's father on the ground that he failed to establish compelling reasons that prevent his return to India as required under Section 13. As the applicant's eligibility for adjustment under Section 13 derives from the eligibility of the principal alien, and she has not asserted or demonstrated compelling reasons apart from those asserted by the principal alien, the applicant therefore is also ineligible for adjustment of status.

For the reasons discussed above, the AAO finds that the applicant is not eligible for adjustment under Section 13. Pursuant to section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. 1361, the burden of proof is upon the applicant to establish that she is eligible for adjustment of status. The applicant has failed to meet that burden. Accordingly, the appeal will be dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
