DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is engaged in the “distribution of construction material.” It seeks to employ the beneficiary as its Operations Director. The petitioner endeavors to classify the beneficiary as an employment-based immigrant pursuant to section 203(b)(1)(C) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(1)(C), as a multinational executive or manager.

On January 25, 2011, the director denied the immigrant petition concluding that petitioner failed to establish that both the beneficiary’s employment abroad with the foreign company and the proposed employment with the U.S. entity are within a qualifying managerial or executive capacity.

On February 28, 2011, counsel for the petitioner submitted the Form I-290B to appeal the director’s denial. Counsel marked the box at part two of the Form I-290B to indicate that the brief and/or additional evidence will be submitted to the AAO within 30 days. The appeal brief was never received by the AAO, thus, the AAO deems the record complete and ready for adjudication.

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

In regards to the director’s conclusion that the petitioner failed to submit sufficient evidence to show the beneficiary’s eligibility for the immigrant petition, the petitioner fails to identify any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. The petitioner claimed that the immigrant visa petition should be granted but did not provide any evidence to corroborate that claim. As no additional evidence is presented on appeal to overcome the decision of the director, the appeal will be summarily dismissed in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not sustained that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
