John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a sorter. The director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate a continuing ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date.

On appeal, counsel stated that:

“The reviewer misread the financial statements submitted with the I-140 which in actuality evidenced more than enough financial ability to employ the beneficiary who in fact has been employed by the sponsor for seven years.”

The regulation at 8 CFR §§ 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii) states that an affected party may make a written request to the AAO for additional time to submit a brief and that, if the AAO grants the affected additional time, it may submit the brief directly to the AAO. Counsel dated the appeal April 23, 2009. Although counsel stated in the appeal statement that he would submit a brief and/or evidence within 30 days of the date of the appeal, as of this date, the AAO has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. Counsel failed to send a brief or any additional evidence to explain the relevance of how the director erred. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
