DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a skilled worker. The director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that the petitioner had a continuing ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date.

The regulation at 8 CFR §§ 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii) states that an affected party may make a written request to the AAO for additional time to submit a brief and that, if the AAO grants the affected party additional time, it may submit the brief directly to the AAO.

U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) received the petitioner's appeal on September 10, 2007. The petitioner stated that it would be sending a brief and/or evidence to the AAO within 30 days. The petitioner contacted USCIS on October 15, 2007 and asked for an additional 60 days to submit its brief and/or evidence. The AAO granted this extension request.

As of this date, over a year and a half after the submission was due, the AAO has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
