John F. Grissom
Acting Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as an other worker. The director determined that the petitioner failed to submit evidence regarding its continuing ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date. On appeal, counsel submitted new evidence regarding the petitioner's ability to pay.

The AAO will not accept evidence offered for the first time on appeal. See Matter of Soriano, 19 I&N Dec. 764 (BIA 1988); Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533 (BIA 1988). If the petitioner had wanted the submitted evidence to be considered, it should have submitted the documents at the time it submitted the Form I-140 petition. Under the circumstances, the AAO need not, and does not, consider the sufficiency of the evidence submitted on appeal. Accordingly, the petitioner has not established that it had the ability to pay the proffered wage. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
