DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3) as a skilled worker. The director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that it has the ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage from the priority date onwards.

On appeal, the petitioner stated that it had the ability to pay and would submit a brief and/or additional evidence within 30 days.

Counsel submitted the appeal on May 22, 2009. As of this date, over fourteen months later, the AAO has received nothing further.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

The AAO also notes that counsel stated on the appeal that he would be sending the petitioner's 2008 tax return as evidence of its ability to pay the proffered salary. Such evidence was never received by the AAO.

The AAO affirms the director's April 21, 2009 decision denying the petition due to a finding of a lack of the ability to pay for 2004 and 2007. On appeal, counsel asserts that the director should have used a totality of the circumstances approach when evaluating those years because the petitioner had extra start up costs for a donut facility and a restaurant during those years. However, counsel for the petitioner has failed to provide any information evidencing those claims. The assertions of counsel do not constitute evidence. Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533, 534 (BIA 1988); Matter of Ramirez-Sanchez, 17 I&N Dec. 503, 506 (BIA 1980). Going on record without supporting documentary evidence is not sufficient for purposes of meeting the burden of proof in these proceedings. Matter of Soffici, 22 I&N Dec. 158, 165 (Comm. 1998) (citing Matter of Treasure Craft of California, 14 I&N Dec. 190 (Reg. Comm. 1972)).

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
