PETITION: Immigrant Petition for Alien Worker as a Skilled Worker or Professional pursuant to Section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)

ON BEHALF OF PETITIONER:

INSTRUCTIONS:

This is the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All documents have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Any further inquiry must be made to that office.

If you believe the law was inappropriately applied or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen. Please refer to 8 C.F.R. § 103.5 for the specific requirements. All motions must be submitted to the office that originally decided your case by filing a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $585. Any motion must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider, as required by 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i).

Perry Rhew
Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner operates a hospital, and seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a registered nurse, a professional or skilled worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3).

Section 203(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(ii), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who hold baccalaureate degrees and who are members of the professions. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(l)(2), and section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(i), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable, at the time of petitioning for classification under this paragraph, of performing skilled labor (requiring at least two years training or experience), not of a temporary nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States. See also 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(l)(3)(ii).

The petitioner has applied for the beneficiary under a blanket labor certification pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.5, Schedule A, Group I. See also 20 C.F.R. § 656.15. Schedule A is the list of occupations set forth at 20 C.F.R. § 656.5 with respect to which the Department of Labor (DOL) has determined that there are not sufficient United States workers who are able, willing, qualified and available, and that the employment of aliens in such occupations will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of United States workers similarly employed.

Based on 8 C.F.R. §§ 204.5(a)(2) and (l)(3)(i) an applicant for a Schedule A position would file Form I-140, “accompanied by any required individual labor certification, application for Schedule A designation, or evidence that the alien’s occupation qualifies as a shortage occupation within the Department of Labor’s Labor Market Information Pilot Program.”<sup>1</sup> The priority date of any petition filed for classification under section 203(b) of the Act “shall be the date the completed, signed petition (including all initial evidence and the correct fee) is properly filed with [U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)].” 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(d).

Pursuant to the regulations set forth in Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the filing must include evidence of prearranged employment for the alien beneficiary. The employment is evidenced by the employer’s completion of the job offer description on the application form and evidence that the employer has provided appropriate notice of filing the Application for Alien Employment Certification to the bargaining representative or to the employer’s employees as set forth in 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d).

<sup>1</sup> On March 28, 2005, pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.17, the Application for Permanent Employment Certification, ETA 9089 replaced the Application for Alien Employment Certification, Form ETA 750. The new Form ETA 9089 was introduced in connection with the re-engineered permanent foreign labor certification program (PERM), which was published in the Federal Register on December 27, 2004 with an effective date of March 28, 2005. See 69 Fed. Reg. 77326 (Dec. 27, 2004).

Also, according to 20 C.F.R. § 656.15(c)(2), aliens who will be permanently employed as professional nurses must have: (1) passed the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS) Examination; or (2) hold a full and unrestricted license to practice professional nursing in the [s]tate of intended employment; or (3) that the alien has passed the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN).

On August 20, 2007, the director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to properly post the position in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(1). Specifically, the director found that the notice was inadequate as it specified a wage range with the lower end of the range less than the proffered wage and the notice was therefore improper.

The AAO takes a de novo look at issues raised in the denial of this petition. See Dor v. INS, 891 F.2d 997, 1002 n. 9 (2d Cir. 1989) (noting that the AAO reviews appeals on a de novo basis). The AAO considers all pertinent evidence in the record, including new evidence properly submitted upon appeal.<sup>2</sup>

The record shows that the appeal is properly filed, timely and makes an allegation of error in law or fact. The procedural history in this case is documented by the record and incorporated into the decision. Further elaboration of the procedural history will be made only as necessary.

20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d) provides:

- (1) In applications filed under § 656.15 (Schedule A), § 656.16 (Shepherders), § 656.17 (Basic Process); § 656.18 (College and University Teachers), and § 656.21 (Supervised Recruitment), the employer must give notice of the filing of the Application for Permanent Employment Certification and be able to document that notice was provided, if requested by the certifying officer as follows:
  - (i) To the bargaining representative(s) (if any) of the employer's employees in the occupational classification for which certification of the job opportunity is sought in the employer's location(s) in the area of intended employment. Documentation may consist of a copy of the letter and a copy of the Application for Permanent Employment Certification form that was sent to the bargaining representative.
  - (ii) If there is no such bargaining representative, by posted notice to the employer's employees at the facility or location of the employment. The notice must be posted for at least 10 consecutive business days. The notice must be clearly visible and unobstructed

<sup>2</sup> The submission of additional evidence on appeal is allowed by the instructions to the Form I-290B, which are incorporated into the regulations by the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(1). See Matter of Soriano, 19 I&N Dec. 764 (BIA 1988).

while posted and must be posted in conspicuous places where the employer's U.S. workers can readily read the posted notice on their way to or from their place of employment . . . In addition, the employer must publish the notice in any and all in-house media, whether electronic or printed, in accordance with the normal procedures used for the recruitment of similar positions in the employer's organization.

(3) The notice of the filing of an Application for Permanent Employment Certification shall:

- (i) State that the notice is being provided as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the relevant job opportunity;
- (ii) State any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on the application to the Certifying Officer of the Department of Labor;
- (iii) Provide the address of the appropriate Certifying Officer; and
- (iv) Be provided between 30 and 180 days before filing the application.

(6) If an application is filed under the Schedule A procedures at § 656.15. . . the notice must contain a description of the job and rate of pay and meet the requirements of this section.

Additionally, section 212 (a)(5)(A)(i) of the Act states the following:

Any alien who seeks to enter the United States for the purpose of performing skilled or unskilled labor is inadmissible, unless the Secretary of Labor has determined and certified . . . that

- (I) there are not sufficient workers who are able, willing, qualified . . . and available at the time of application for a visa and admission to the United States and at the place where the alien is to perform such skilled or unskilled labor, and
- (II) the employment of such alien will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the U.S. similarly employed.

Fundamental to these provisions is the need to ensure that there are no qualified U.S. workers available for the position prior to filing. The required posting notice seeks to allow any person with evidence related to the application to notify the appropriate DOL officer prior to petition filing. See the Immigration Act of 1990, Pub.L. No. 101-649, 122(b)(1), 1990 Stat. 358 (1990); see also Labor Certification Process for the Permanent Employment of Aliens in the United States and Implementation of the Immigration Act of 1990, 56 Fed. Reg. 32,244 (July 15, 1991). Statutory interpretation begins with the language of the statute itself. Pennsylvania Department of Public Welfare v. Davenport, 495 U.S. 552 (1990). We are expected to give the words used their ordinary meaning. Chevron, U.S.A., Inc. v. Natural Resources Defense Council, Inc., 467 U.S. 837 (1984). We are to construe the language in question in harmony with the thrust of related provisions and with the statute as a whole. K Mart Corp. v. Cartier Inc., 486 U.S. 281, 291 (1988) (holding that construction of language which takes into account the design of the statute as a whole is preferred); see also COIT Independence Joint Venture v. Federal Sav. and Loan Ins. Corp., 489 U.S. 561 (1989); Matter of W-F-, 21 I&N Dec. 503 (BIA 1996).

The petitioner initially submitted a posting notice that stated an hourly wage of $28.64 to $43.05 instead of the listed proffered wage of $36.28 per hour. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.40 (a petitioner is required to obtain a prevailing wage determination from the relevant State Workforce Agency (SWA) prior to filing.)<sup>3</sup> The director cited the petitioner's failure to comply with 20 C.F.R. § 656(d)(10) in his decision since the notice failed to list the SWA determined prevailing wage rate as the bottom of the range on the posting notice.

<sup>3</sup> ETA Form 9089 indicates that the wage of $36.28 was determined with a Collective Bargaining Agreement (CBA) as the prevailing wage source. The prevailing wage determination submitted with the petition states the determined wage as $36.28 based on the CBA. Additionally, the Department of Labor provides under the "Prevailing Wage" section of its frequently asked questions section of its website:

4. Must the employer request a prevailing wage from a State Workforce Agency (SWA) if a Collective Bargaining Agreement exists or the employer is choosing to use a Davis-Bacon Act or McNamara-O'Hara Service Contract Act wage?

Yes, the employer must always request a prevailing wage from the SWA having jurisdiction over the proposed area of intended employment. The SWA is responsible for evaluating whether the wage source chosen by the employer is applicable and/or acceptable.

17. Is the employer permitted to use a wage range as opposed to a single wage rate in advertisements for the job offer?

Yes, the employer may advertise with a wage range as long as the bottom of the range is no less than the prevailing wage rate.

On appeal, counsel states that the petitioner should be exempt from complying with Section 212(p)(3) of the Act which requires that a range of salary include the prevailing wage as the bottom of the range, because of a previously existing collective bargaining agreement. The excerpt provided from the agreement between Catholic Health Care West San Gabriel Valley Medical Center and the California Nurses Association consists solely of page 29. Page 29 has a compensation table which provides that salary increases shall take place each January and provides a table of hourly wages as awarded based on years of experience. The range that appeared on the posting notice is the amount that a nurse could expect to receive in July 2006 as a new registered nursing graduate up to twenty years of experience; the prevailing wage appears as the wage for July 2006 for nurses with five years of experience or ten years of experience in an acute foreign care setting. As noted above, the petitioner was required to obtain a wage in compliance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.40. The petitioner obtained the wage from the SWA based on the requirements of the present position and in conformance with the collective bargaining agreement. Pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(6), the notice must contain the proper rate of pay. See also 69 Fed. Reg. 77338 (Dec.27, 2004) (stating that “[e]mployers can use a wage range in the required notice. It is a longstanding DOL policy that the employer may offer a wage range as long as the bottom of the range is no less than the prevailing rate.”). As the notice did not contain the SWA determined wage as the bottom of the range, it failed to meet the notice requirements at 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(6).

On appeal, counsel further states that hospitals routinely advertise for employees using a range of salaries to be determined exactly based on the credentials or years of experience of the nurse hired for the position. Furthermore, counsel states that the beneficiary is actually being offered the prevailing wage. Although the petitioner may advertise other positions however it chooses, it received a prevailing wage determination for this particular position and was required to post notice of the position in accordance with this determination.

The petitioner has provided no evidence that its notice contained the correct rate of pay for the proffered wage as the bottom range of the posting notice and cannot overcome the basis for denial. The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
