DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center (director), denied the immigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner operates a home health care service and seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a registered nurse, a professional or skilled worker, pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3).

Section 203(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(ii), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who hold baccalaureate degrees and who are members of the professions. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(l)(2), and section 203(b)(3)(A)(i) of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(i), provides for the granting of preference classification to qualified immigrants who are capable, at the time of petitioning for classification under this paragraph, of performing skilled labor (requiring at least two years training or experience), not of a temporary nature, for which qualified workers are not available in the United States. See also 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(l)(3)(ii).

The petitioner has applied for the beneficiary under a blanket labor certification pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.5, Schedule A, Group I. See also 20 C.F.R. § 656.15. Schedule A is the list of occupations set forth at 20 C.F.R. § 656.5 with respect to which the United States Department of Labor (DOL) has determined that there are not sufficient United States workers who are able, willing, qualified and available, and that the employment of aliens in such occupations will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of United States workers similarly employed.

Based on 8 C.F.R. §§ 204.5(a)(2) and (l)(3)(i) an applicant for a Schedule A position would file Form I-140, "accompanied by any required individual labor certification, application for Schedule A designation, or evidence that the alien's occupation qualifies as a shortage occupation within the Department of Labor's Labor Market Information Pilot Program."¹ The priority date of any petition filed for classification under section 203(b) of the Act "shall be the date the completed, signed petition (including all initial evidence and the correct fee) is properly filed with [United States Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS)]." 8 C.F.R. § 204.5(d).

Pursuant to the regulations set forth in Title 20 of the Code of Federal Regulations, the filing must include evidence of prearranged employment for the alien beneficiary. The employment is evidenced by the employer's completion of the job offer description on the application form and evidence that the employer has provided appropriate notice of filing the Application for Alien Employment Certification to the bargaining representative or to the employer's employees as set forth in 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d).

¹ On March 28, 2005, pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.17, the Application for Permanent Employment Certification, ETA-9089 replaced the Application for Alien Employment Certification, Form ETA 750. The new Form ETA 9089 was introduced in connection with the re-engineered permanent foreign labor certification program (PERM), which was published in the Federal Register on December 27, 2004 with an effective date of March 28, 2005. See 69 Fed. Reg. 77326 (Dec. 27, 2004).

Also, according to 20 C.F.R. § 656.5(a)(2), aliens who will be permanently employed as professional nurses must (1) have received a Certificate from the Commission on Graduates of Foreign Nursing Schools (CGFNS), (2) hold a permanent, full and unrestricted license to practice professional nursing in the state of intended employment, or (3) have passed the National Council Licensure Examination for Registered Nurses (NCLEX-RN), administered by the National Council of State Boards of Nursing..

On April 27, 2009, the director denied the petition because the petitioner failed to submit a valid prevailing wage determination in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.40.

The AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis. See Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004). The AAO considers all pertinent evidence in the record, including new evidence properly submitted upon appeal.²

The record shows that the appeal is properly filed, and makes an allegation of error in law or fact. The procedural history in this case is documented by the record and incorporated into the decision. Further elaboration of the procedural history will be made only as necessary.

The petitioner annotated the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, to indicate "I am filing an appeal. My brief and additional evidence will be submitted to the AAO within 30 days." Petitioner also noted on the Form I-290B, "The petitioner submitted a wage determination culled from the Online Wage Library of the DOL. Using the wages provided by the on-line wage library is an alternative way allowed by Title 20 CFR Section 656.40." No brief or additional evidence has been received by the AAO.

A petitioner must establish eligibility at the time of filing. See Matter of Katigbak, 14 I&N Dec. 45, 49 (Comm'r 1971). A petitioner may not make material changes to a petition in an effort to make a deficient petition conform to USCIS requirements. See Matter of Izummi, 22 I&N Dec. 169, 176 (Assoc. Comm'r 1988).

One of the requirements to meet Schedule A eligibility is that the petitioner obtain a prevailing wage determination (PWD) in compliance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.40 from the relevant State Workforce Agency (SWA) prior to filing.³ The regulation at 20 C.F.R. § 656.40 specifically sets forth that the petitioner must request a wage and the wage obtained is assigned a validity period. In order to use a prevailing wage determination (PWD), "employers must file their [Schedule A] applications or begin the recruitment required by §§ 656.17(d) or 656.21 within the validity period specified by the SWA." See 20 C.F.R. § 656.40(c). The petitioner must file Form ETA 9089 and Form I-140 with the prevailing wage determination issued by the SWA having jurisdiction over the proposed area of employment. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.15(b)(i).

² The submission of additional evidence on appeal is allowed by the instructions to the Form I-290B, which are incorporated into the regulations by the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(1). See Matter of Soriano, 19 I&N Dec. 764 (BIA 1988).

³ It is noted that after January 1, 2010, an employer must request a PWD from the National Processing Center (NPC) rather than a SWA. See 20 C.F.R. § 656.40(a).

(b)(6)

The record of proceeding contains a document with the heading "Online Wage Library –FLC Search Results" which is dated July 25, 2007. The document shows a search was conducted for the dates "7/2007 – 6/2008." Four levels of wages for the occupation code 29-1111.00, registered nurses, in the [REDACTED] are listed. The document does not indicate it was generated by a SWA or assigned a validity period by the SWA.

On appeal, the petitioner asserts that the search results it provided using the Online Wage Library is an alternate method of obtaining a PWD under 20 C.F.R. § 656.40. As is explained above, this is an incorrect interpretation of the regulation. The petitioner provided no evidence in support its conclusion. Unsupported assertions do not constitute evidence. Matter of Obaigbena, 19 I&N Dec. 533, 534 n.2 (BIA 1988); Matter of Laureano, 19 I&N Dec. 1, 3 n.2 (BIA 1983); Matter of Ramirez-Sanchez, 17 I&N Dec. 503, 506 (BIA 1980).

Thus, the instant petition was submitted to USCIS without a copy of a valid PWD made in accordance with 20 C.F.R. §§656.40 and 656.41.

Beyond the decision of the director, an additional requirement of Schedule A eligibility is for the petitioner to post the position in accordance with 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d), which provides:

- (1) In applications filed under § 656.15 (Schedule A), § 656.16 (Shepherders), § 656.17 (Basic Process); § 656.18 (College and University Teachers), and § 656.21 (Supervised Recruitment), the employer must give notice of the filing of the Application for Permanent Employment Certification and be able to document that notice was provided, if requested by the certifying officer as follows:

- (ii) If there is no such bargaining representative, by posted notice to the employer's employees at the facility or location of the employment. The notice must be posted for at least 10 consecutive business days. The notice must be clearly visible and unobstructed while posted and must be posted in conspicuous places where the employer's U.S. workers can readily read the posted notice on their way to or from their place of employment . . . In addition, the employer must publish the notice in any and all in-house media, whether electronic or printed, in accordance with the normal procedures used for the recruitment of similar positions in the employer's organization.

(3) The notice of the filing of an Application for Permanent Employment Certification shall:

- (i) State that the notice is being provided as a result of the filing of an application for permanent alien labor certification for the relevant job opportunity;
- (ii) State any person may provide documentary evidence bearing on the application to the Certifying Officer of the Department of Labor;
- (iii) Provide the address of the appropriate Certifying Officer; and
- (iv) Be provided between 30 and 180 days before filing the application.

(6) If an application is filed under the Schedule A procedures at § 656.15. . . the notice must contain a description of the job and rate of pay and meet the requirements of this section.

Additionally, section 212. (a)(5)(A)(i) of the Act states the following:

Any alien who seeks to enter the United States for the purpose of performing skilled or unskilled labor is inadmissible, unless the Secretary of Labor has determined and certified . . . that

- (I) there are not sufficient workers who are able, willing, qualified . . . and available at the time of application for a visa and admission to the United States and at the place where the alien is to perform such skilled or unskilled labor, and
- (II) the employment of such alien will not adversely affect the wages and working conditions of workers in the U.S. similarly employed.

The required posting notice seeks to allow any person with evidence related to the application to notify the appropriate DOL officer prior to petition filing. See the Immigration Act of 1990, Pub.L. No. 101-649, 122(b)(1), 1990 Stat. 358 (1990); see also Labor Certification Process for the Permanent Employment of Aliens in the United States and Implementation of the Immigration Act of 1990, 56 Fed. Reg. 32,244 (July 15, 1991).

As set forth above, the petitioner must post the notice pursuant to 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d)(3)(iv) for 30 to 180 days prior to the July 30, 2007 filing, and have met the other requirements of 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d). No evidence of a posting notice is in the record.

The petitioner failed to provide evidence it satisfied the posting requirements as set forth in 20 C.F.R. § 656.10(d), and also failed to file the petition with a copy of a valid PWD. Accordingly, the petitioner has failed to meet the regulatory requirements, required to be completed prior to filing a Schedule A application.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
