DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary as a skilled worker pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3). The director's decision denying the petition concluded that the petitioner failed to demonstrate a continuing ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date.

Counsel filed the appeal on March 27, 2009. On the Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, counsel merely stated that the petitioner "is able to pay the proffered wage [and] is still in the process of gathering information." Counsel also requested a 30-day extension to "submit appropriate evidence." Counsel submitted a letter on May 4, 2009 with a copy of IRS Form 7004 requesting an automatic extension of time for the petitioner to file its 2008 federal income tax return.

As of this date, more than 35 months later, the AAO has received nothing further, and the regulation requires that any brief shall be submitted directly to the AAO. 8 C.F.R. §§ 103.3(a)(2)(vii) and (viii).

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

Counsel here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
