DISCUSSION: The Director, Texas Service Center (director), denied the employment-based immigrant visa petition, which is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The petitioner is a dry cleaning and laundry business. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a store manager pursuant to section 203(b)(3) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3). As required by statute, a labor certification accompanied the petition. Upon reviewing the petition, the director determined that the petitioner failed to establish that it had the continuing ability to pay the proffered wage.

The AAO issued a Notice of Intent to Dismiss and Request for Evidence (Notice of Intent) on June 11, 2012 requesting additional evidence of the petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage and evidence explaining a noted inconsistency regarding the date it was incorporated. The AAO granted the petitioner 30 days to respond to the Notice of Intent, but no response has been received from the petitioner.

The AAO specifically alerted the petitioner that failure to respond to the Notice of Intent would result in dismissal of the appeal, since the AAO could not substantively adjudicate the appeal without the information requested. The failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14).

Because the petitioner failed to respond to the Notice of Intent, the AAO is dismissing the appeal.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
