Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition, which is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be rejected as untimely filed. The AAO will return the matter to the director for consideration as a motion to reopen and reconsider.

In order to file an appeal properly, the regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(i) provides that the affected party or the attorney or representative of record must submit the complete appeal within 30 days of service of the unfavorable decision. If the decision was mailed, the appeal must be filed within 33 days. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.8(b). The date of filing is not the date of submission, but the date of actual receipt with the required fee. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(a)(7)(i).

The director issued the initial decision on January 13, 2009. At that time, the director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file an appeal. Counsel for the petitioner filed Form I-290, Notice of Appeal or Motion, which was received by the service center on February 27, 2009, or 45 days after the decision was issued. The director treated the untimely appeal as a motion but reaffirmed his decision to deny the I-140 petition.

The director issued the decision on April 27, 2009. The director properly gave notice to the petitioner that it had 33 days to file the appeal. Neither the Act nor the pertinent regulations grant the AAO authority to extend this time limit.

The Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, was received by the service center on June 23, 2009, or 57 days after the decision was issued. Accordingly, the appeal was untimely filed.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(v)(B)(2) states that, if an untimely appeal meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider, the appeal must be treated as a motion, and a decision must be made on the merits of the case. The official having jurisdiction over a motion is the official who made the last decision in the proceeding, in this case the Director, Nebraska Service Center. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(ii).

In this matter the petitioner did not submit a brief or any additional evidence directly to the AAO in accordance with 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(2)(viii). Nevertheless, the matter will be returned to the director so that he may determine whether it meets the requirements of a motion to reopen or a motion to reconsider. If the director determines that the late appeal meets the requirements of a motion, the motion shall be granted and a new decision will be issued.

As the appeal was untimely filed, the appeal must be rejected.

ORDER: The appeal is rejected.
