INSTRUCTIONS:

Enclosed please find the decision of the Administrative Appeals Office in your case. All of the documents related to this matter have been returned to the office that originally decided your case. Please be advised that any further inquiry that you might have concerning your case must be made to that office.

If you believe the AAO inappropriately applied the law in reaching its decision, or you have additional information that you wish to have considered, you may file a motion to reconsider or a motion to reopen in accordance with the instructions on Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, with a fee of $630. The specific requirements for filing such a motion can be found at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5. Do not file any motion directly with the AAO. Please be aware that 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i) requires any motion to be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reconsider or reopen.

Thank you,

Chief, Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The preference visa petition was denied by the Director, Texas Service Center. It then came before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. On April 26, 2012, this office provided the petitioner with a request for evidence and afforded the petitioner an opportunity to respond to the request.

The petitioner is deli. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as a store manager. As required by statute, a labor certification approved by the Department of Labor accompanied the petition. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition. Therefore, the director denied the petition.

The AAO conducts appellate review on a de novo basis. See Soltane v. DOJ, 381 F.3d 143, 145 (3d Cir. 2004). The AAO considers all pertinent evidence in the record, including new evidence properly submitted upon appeal.¹

On April 26, 2012, this office notified the petitioner that additional evidence and information was necessary before the AAO could render a decision. Evidence in the record of proceeding showed that the petitioner is structured as an S corporation. The AAO noted that the record in this case lacked sufficient evidence as to whether the petitioner has the ability to pay the proffered wage, and that the beneficiary is qualified to perform the duties of the proffered position with two years of qualifying employment experience.

The petitioner was informed in the RFE that if it chose not to respond, the AAO would dismiss the appeal without further discussion. The failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14). The AAO further stated that it would be unable to substantively adjudicate the appeal without a meaningful response to the line of inquiry set forth in the request for evidence.

This office allowed the petitioner 45 days in which to provide the requested evidence. It is noted that the RFE was sent to the petitioner and counsel's last known address. More than 45 days have passed and the petitioner has failed to respond to this office's request for evidence. Thus, the appeal will be dismissed as abandoned.

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
