DISCUSSION: The employment-based visa petition was denied by the Director, Nebraska Service Center, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is a restaurant. It seeks to employ the beneficiary permanently in the United States as an entertainment director. As required by statute, the petition is accompanied by a Form ETA 750, Application for Alien Employment Certification, approved by the United States Department of Labor (DOL). The director determined that the petitioner had not established that it had the continuing ability to pay the beneficiary the proffered wage beginning on the priority date of the visa petition. The director denied the petition accordingly.

On April 26, 2013, the AAO issued a Request for Evidence (RFE) soliciting specific information regarding the petitioner's ability to pay the proffered wage. The RFE advised the petitioner of its burden to establish its ability to pay not only the wage offered to this beneficiary, but also the wages offered to any other beneficiaries for whom it had petitioned. The RFE solicited specific information regarding other beneficiaries.

In the RFE, the AAO specifically alerted the petitioner that failure to respond to the RFE would result in dismissal since the AAO could not substantively adjudicate the appeal without the information requested. The failure to submit requested evidence that precludes a material line of inquiry shall be grounds for denying the petition. See 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(14).

As of the date of this decision, the petitioner has not responded to the AAO's RFE. Because the petitioner failed to respond to the RFE, the AAO is summarily dismissing the appeal as abandoned pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(13)(i).

The burden of proof in these proceedings rests solely with the petitioner. Section 291 of the Act, 8 U.S.C. § 1361. The petitioner has not met that burden.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed as abandoned.
