DISCUSSION: The Director, Nebraska Service Center, denied the immigrant visa petition and the matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to classify the beneficiary pursuant to section 203(b)(3)(A)(ii) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(3)(A)(ii) as a professional. The director determined that the petitioner failed to demonstrate that the beneficiary met the minimum requirements for the offered position by the priority date or a continuing ability to pay the proffered wage beginning on the priority date.

On appeal, the petitioner submits Form I-290B, a copy of the denial, and a cover letter. The petitioner checked box c on Part 3 of the I-290B, indicating no supplemental brief or additional evidence will be submitted. Although Part 4 of the I-290B specifically states that the appellant must provide a statement regarding the basis for the appeal, the petitioner made no statement and declined to submit a supplemental brief or additional evidence.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. He has not even expressed disagreement with the director's decision. The appeal must therefore be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
