DISCUSSION: The employment-based immigrant visa petition was denied by the Director, California Service Center, on April 20, 2010, and is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is a Metro Manila Bible Community. It seeks to classify the beneficiary as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 203(b)(4) of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. § 1153(b)(4), to perform services as an assistant pastor. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had the required two years of continuous, qualifying work experience immediately preceding the filing date of the petition.

On Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, the petitioner stated that “the beneficiary is more than qualified for the offered position,” and “[a]dditional documents and information will be submitted within 30 days.” The petitioner dated the appeal on May 14, 2010. As of this date, approximately 20 months later, the AAO has received nothing further. Accordingly, the record is considered complete as it now stands.

As stated in 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v), an appeal shall be summarily dismissed if the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal. The petitioner here has not specifically addressed the reasons stated for denial and has not provided any additional evidence. As the petitioner has failed to provide any specific statement or argument regarding the basis of his appeal, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
