DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the employment-based nonimmigrant visa petition. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner seeks to continue the beneficiary's status as a special immigrant religious worker pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(R)(1) of the Act to perform services as a teacher's assistant and assistant program manager. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the proffered position qualifies as a religious occupation or vocation.

Counsel for the petitioner timely filed a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, on which he generally stated the director erroneously interpreted the supplemental documentation filed with the petition. Counsel did not elaborate on his statement, point to any specific evidence purportedly misinterpreted by the director, or provide any further detailed argument. Although counsel stated that he would submit a brief and/or additional documentation to the AAO within 30 days, as of the date of this decision, more than four months after the appeal was filed, no further documentation has been received by the AAO. Therefore, the record will be considered complete as presently constituted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding; therefore, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
