DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the nonimmigrant visa petition. The Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) dismissed a subsequent appeal. The matter is now before the AAO on a motion to reopen and to reconsider. The motion will be dismissed.

The motion is untimely. Under the provisions of 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a)(1)(i), a motion to reopen or reconsider must be filed within 30 days of the decision that the motion seeks to reopen or reconsider. The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5a(b) states that whenever a person is required to act within a prescribed period after the service of a notice upon him and the notice is served by mail, three days shall be added to the prescribed period. The AAO issued its decision on July 27, 2010. The petitioner's motion to reopen and to reconsider was received by the service center on September 7, 2010, 42 days after the AAO issued its decision. The AAO notes that a postmarked envelope in the record indicates that the petitioner submitted its motion to the U.S. Postal Service on September 1, 2010, 36 days after the AAO's decision. The motion was therefore filed untimely.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.5(a) provides that the agency may, in its discretion, accept a motion to reopen beyond this time frame if the petitioner demonstrates that the delay was reasonable and beyond his or her control. The petitioner submitted did not allege and submitted no evidence to establish that its failure to file its motion within the prescribed time was beyond its control.

ORDER: The motion is dismissed.
