DISCUSSION: The Director, California Service Center, denied the employment-based nonimmigrant visa petition and subsequent motions to reopen and reconsider. The matter is now before the Administrative Appeals Office (AAO) on appeal. The appeal will be summarily dismissed.

The petitioner is a church. It seeks to extend the beneficiary's status as a nonimmigrant religious worker pursuant to section 101(a)(15)(R)(1) of the Act to perform services as an assistant pastor. The director determined that the petitioner had not established that the beneficiary had been a member of its religious denomination for two full years immediately preceding the filing of the visa petition.

Counsel for the petitioner timely filed a Form I-290B, Notice of Appeal or Motion, on which he states that "the various entities mentioned in the Director's denial share a common creed and practice to qualify under regulation." Counsel also states that he would submit a brief and/or additional evidence within 30 days. As of the date of this decision, however, more 15 months after the appeal was filed, no further documentation has been received by the AAO. Therefore, the record will be considered complete as presently constituted.

The regulation at 8 C.F.R. § 103.3(a)(1)(v) states, in pertinent part:

An officer to whom an appeal is taken shall summarily dismiss any appeal when the party concerned fails to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or statement of fact for the appeal.

The petitioner has failed to identify specifically any erroneous conclusion of law or a statement of fact in this proceeding; therefore, the appeal must be summarily dismissed.

ORDER: The appeal is summarily dismissed.
